The Daily Oregonian.

[illegible] Day

Another anniversary of our Nation's [illegible] day is upon us. We greet it with unusual emotions under unusual circumstances. The attempt to break up this Government—though made with vast destruction of property and life—is not likely to be successful. The effort to destroy the glorious record of our fathers—to make it a crime to revert on this day to their trials, their bravery, their patriotism, their devotion, and their sufferings, in securing the establishment of this Government—will fail, and only be classed with the deeds of Goths and Vandals of the dark ages.

We rejoice this day that though our country is passing through scenes that try the souls of men, we can see in the future one government, one country, one flag—that from this trial our country will emerge and stand a mighty people—securing respect abroad and at home the enjoyment in long years to come of those same great privileges and blessings that have in times past distinguished us as a people among the nations of the earth. Est perpetua.

COWLITZ COUNTY UNION CONVENTION.—The Cowlitz County W. T., Union Convention nominated Jas. Huntington for Representative, A. R. Burbank, Treasurer; [illegible] Duffy, Sheriff; Z. B. Smith, Assessor; [illegible] Bennett and W. A. McCarkle, County Commissioners, and unanimously passed the following resolutions:

Resolved, By the Union Convention of Cowlitz Co., W. T., that we are most emphatically for the perpetuity of the Constitution and Union so wisely formed and inaugurated by our Fathers.

Resolved, That loyalty to the Government is paramount to Party; therefore we ignore former party ties and unite upon the great platform of the Union, the Constitution, the enforcement of the laws—a full and hearty support of the Government, and [illegible] opposition to the exploded heresy of secession.

Resolved, That we highly approve of and endorse the patriotic course and efforts of the President, the Congress, and the Federal army and navy, in the great work of defending the Constitution, enforcing the laws, and forever putting down the present most wicked barbarous and unjustifiable rebellion yet known to any civilized people or Government.

A. R. Burbank was Chairman and A. S. Abernethy Secretary of the Convention.

FLAX IN GREAT BRITAIN.—Owing to the American war preparations have already been made in England and Scotland to sow ten times the breadth of flax that was ever sown before, and it is said that Ireland will have a fourth of its surface covered with flax this year. Flax makes excellent rope. Perhaps those countries think that there will be a great demand in America for that article this season.

The Northern secesh, finding that their rebel friends are about "played out," as Jeff Davis' wife says, are anxious to save their property from confiscation. They want loyal people to pay the expenses of the war and insist that the property of the rebels shall not be used for that purpose. This idea is very popular with the rebels both South and North, but does not suit the views of loyal people anywhere.

A GOOD OFFICER.—It is our pleasure to state, that having had considerable business transactions with Hon. L. Jay S. Turney, we can truthfully say that we have found no gentleman more accommodating and obliging, and who discharged the duties of his office more promptly and efficiently than Secretary Turney. He is a good officer, worthy the esteem and confidence of the people of our sister Territory.

NEW PAPER.—We understand that Mr. A. S. Gould, late of the Portland Times, is about to start a new paper in Lewiston, to be called the Golden Age. We doubt not that success will attend the effort, as the paper under his control will be ably conducted and highly interesting.

POEM.—We ask all of our readers to peruse the poem on the fourth page of this morning's issue, entitled "Fourth of July, 1862." Nothing has ever been produced in Oregon that equals it. It is decidedly original in all of its passages and shows remarkable genius.

The Jeff Davis Government has issued about three hundred million dollars of worthless paper money.

All the slaves in the Dutch West India colonies will be set free on the 1st of July, 1863.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

(SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Dates to June 26th.

SACRAMENTO, June 2[illegible].

MEMPHIS, June 2[illegible].—Orders have been issued requiring all voters at the approaching municipal election, to take the oath of allegiance. General Grant and staff arrived this evening.

Gen. [illegible] at Norfolk [illegible], that the people would not take the oath of allegiance, is [illegible] issued a proclamation declaring the city under martial law, and [illegible] city officers.

WASHINGTON, June 2[illegible].—There has been very little skirmishing in front of Richmond for the last twenty-four hours. Richmond papers speak of the arrival of General [illegible]. No mention made of the whereabouts of [illegible] regards army.

NEW YORK, June 2[illegible].—News from New Orleans to the 18th. Steamer Mississippi [illegible] for Boston with a large number of [illegible] and [illegible] hogsheads of sugar. Business [illegible] reviving.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The Newbern [illegible] of 17th confirms the report that [illegible] North Carolina regiment [illegible] enlisted, previous to which they hung [illegible] brigadier General.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—[illegible] June 2[illegible].—Brigadier General [illegible] [illegible] this day to relieve General [illegible] command of his division. To the [illegible] will be committed the important and responsible duty of protecting the [illegible] at White House, and [illegible] unbroken communication.

NEW YORK, June 26th.—A Richmond dispatch says Jeff Davis taken sick at Raleigh where had gone to visit a sick child. Anticipations are expressed that he would return to the rebel capital in a few days. The same paper (2[illegible]d) mentions the capture of [illegible] deserters, some of whom will be shot.

WASHINGTON, June 26th.—Commodore Farragut communicates to the Navy Department an account of an engagement on the Mississippi, between a portion of our fleet and the rebel battery located in the vicinity of Grand Gulf, with 500 artillerist. The gunboat [illegible] was struck 2[illegible] times, and the [illegible] 17 times. Our loss only one man killed and six wounded. Not succeeding in silencing the rebel fire, and the fort being too formidable to leave in the rear of the boats, the [illegible] decided the [illegible] shelled the battery and town. The rebels deserted the battery. The commander says the heights are filled with riflemen [illegible] him any annoyance he will shell the town.

MEMPHIS, June 20th.—Beauregard has a letter in the Mobile News, denying that Gen. Pope took any such number of prisoners as telegraphed by Halleck. He says 200 will cover the number taken. He also says Confederate loss at Corinth and during the retreat did not amount to one day's expenses of the Federal army. The Memphis Appeal of 2[illegible] says: "The Confederate army of the Mississippi, is much strengthened. The health of the soldiers is much improved, and the spirits of the men are all that could be desired."

The Very Latest.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28th, Via Yreka, June 29th, 3 A. M.—The following overland dispatch appears in the Bulletin of this evening:

WASHINGTON, June 2[illegible].—The following has just been received: "[illegible] No. 2[illegible] [illegible] o'clock A. M.—To the Secretary of War:—"We have advanced our pickets on the left considerably to-day, under a sharp resistance. The men behaved handsomely. Some firing still continues.

1[illegible] minutes past 3 P. M.—The enemy are making a desperate resistance to the advance of picket lines. Kearney and one half H[illegible] [illegible] ers are where we want them. I have this moment reinforced Hooker's right with a brigade and a couple of guns. I hope in a few moments to complete this work intended fort day. The men are behaving splendidly, the enemy are fighting well also.

This is not a battle—merely an affair of Heintzleman's corps supported by Keyes and thus far all goes well. We hold every foot we have gained. The loss thus far is not large. The fighting up to this time has been heavily by Hooker's Division. He has silenced the enemy's batteries on his front.

Five o'clock, P. M.—The affair is over. We have gained our point, notwithstanding a strong opposition. Our men did all that could be desired. The affair was partially decided by two guns that Capt Moody brought into action under very difficult circumstances. The enemy were driven from their camp in front of ours.

(Signed) MCCLELLAN.

A TROUT FACTORY.—There is a large factory in operation in Glastenbury, Connecticut, where trout are hatched by artificial means. The number now in the pond is between 40,000 and 50,000, and rapidly increasing. When the stock reaches the number of half a million, they estimate a yield of 50,000 pounds per annum. As they will bring in market from 25 to 50 cents per pound, this amount would afford a very pleasant net income. The fishes are fed regularly, and have a man in constant attendance. Their food consists of small fish and shad spawn in season. Millions of suckers are raised to feed the hungry [illegible] ties of the pond. In friendliness to them [illegible] who have a tendency to depart [illegible] [illegible] ant places for this kind of fish, we will say that upon the bank of the pond, who to them are growing a large dog who knows his business, has taken up a permanent residence, and is always at home.

IRREVERENCE IN WASHINGTON.—[illegible] on, who has just returned from Fredericksburg, states that the statue of Washington, a Mason, executed by Hiram Powers, and said to be one of the finest productions of that artist, has been taken from the Lodge Room there, and is now hidden away in one of the cellars of the town. Also that the monument to Mary, the mother of Washington, has been used as a target by the rebels. There [illegible] corners chipped off by Minie bullets.

RICHMOND.—Prentice has the following:

The Richmond Enquirer says that they have daily prayers in all the churches of that city. The probability is that if they don't give up their treason they will soon have daily fasting in all their private houses.

SLAVERY [illegible] COMMUNITY [illegible]

SALE OF LAND IN OREGON.—WASHINGTON, June [illegible]th.—The President has [illegible] proclamation [illegible] 400,000 acres of land in Oregon for public sale in October.

Dietz's Diamond Oil.

WE NOW OFFER TO THE PUBLIC in full confidence a new article of KEROSENE OIL,
Which we warrant in every particular to be Superior to any other Oil ever brought to the San Francisco market. It has been thoroughly tested in all the different Patent Coal Oil Burners, and found to produce
More Light and Burn Longer
by one-third, than any other oil in use.

Among the many advantages of this KEROSENE OIL over other oils is: First, that it is perfectly NON-EXPLOSIVE, and can be used with perfect safety in all kinds of LAMPS. Second, It is free from all objectionable and unpleasant smells, and burns with a clear white brilliant flame. We cordially solicit the public and FAMILIES to give this Oil a trial, and once tried we feel confident it will gain a preference over all other Oil for economy as well as its superior burning qualities.

In order to protect ourselves against Counterfeits we have placed a brand on each can and case, which will be known as
DIETZ'S DIAMOND OIL.

It is now offered at wholesale and retail at 505 Front street,
Between Washington and Jackson streets,
And at Branch Store, 56 Second street,
2d door from Mission, San Francisco.
A. C. DIETZ & CO.

We have on hand a large stock of COAL OIL LAMPS, which we are selling at New York prices. Also,
Camphene, Coal Oil Fluid,
95 per ct. Alcohol, Turpentine,
Lard, Sperm, Polar, Rape Seed,
Neat's-Foot, Linseed, China,
and other Oils, etc., etc.

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1862

Eighty-sixth Anniversary of American Independence

THE FOURTH IN PORTLAND

The ever glorious "Fourth of July" was duly observed by a considerable number of the citizens of this city on Friday last, though there was not such a general turn out as we had hoped to witness, this, however, is not attributable to a morbid state of feeling of national pride, or a lack of patriotic fire to warm up the public pulse into joyous demonstrations upon that great natal day but rather from a belief that owing to the confused state of the city from the high waters, and, also, from the discouraging indications of the weather, which was feared would prevent the comfortable and agreeable enjoyment of a public celebration, hence, many of our citizens made no preparation to suitably commemorate the day

However, at the rising of the sun on that day, our citizens were reminded, by the ringing of bells and firing of cannon, that another anniversary day of national independence had again risen to bless our noble land, and that each and all were called upon to come forth and present some evidence of their devotion to the glorious Union which was formed and cemented by virtue of the solemn declaration, pledge and covenant publicly declared this day 86 years ago, and the subsequent on sealing of the same by the blood of our forefathers At about 10 o'clock, the "Portland Cornet Band," under charge of Mr Dennison, marched out upon the street, very handsomely dressed in uniform, with their white plumes waving on top their hats, and proceeded to collect up the line of procession according to programme published in the city papers, marching the different fire companies and squadrons down to corner of Front and Stark streets, with the right resting on Stark, the place of starting, from thence the procession, composed of "Multnomah, No 2," Columbia, No 3," and "Young America, No. 4," of the Portland Fire Department, accompanied by the Mayor and Common Council, Ordnance corps with field piece, citizens on foot, &c, &c, besides several whom we took to be "soldiers of the war of 1812," marched round pretty much all of the principal streets of the city, and once round the public square, and from thence, by a circuitous route, to the "Garden Field House," somewhere in the Northern suburbs of the city, where the usual ceremonies of the day were had, first,—opening with prayer by the Rev Mr. Hyland—reading of the Declaration of Independence by T B Trevett, Esq, and the delivery of an Oration by Hon Geo H Williams We did not hear the oration as we discovered that the "Press" of the city had no part or lot in the demonstration, and not being a "soldier of 1812," or any distinguished individual, hence, we did not follow the procession any farther than the public square, but we are informed by those who did hear the oration, that it was highly interesting, neat, and well timed creditable and satisfactory At the close of the oration, the procession again formed in line and marched back,—"Columbia, No 3," and "Young America, No 4," going to their respective Engine Houses, and "Multnomah, No 2," proceeding to the Metropolis Hotel, where we learn that a sumptuous dinner had been prepared for the benefit of the Fire Companies and invited guests We must be excused from reporting further upon this branch of the subject, unless it be to say that we attribute the little mistakes of the day to the inefficiency and thoughtlessness of the committee of arrangements rather than to a disposition to withhold the usual courtesies due to several parties who were overlooked At noon, a National salute of 34 guns was fired from the public square and 13 again at sunset, by Sergeant Davidson of the Ordnance Department of Vancouver—Our citizens had the satisfaction of again beholding the magnificent and beautiful city flag, which floated proudly out in graceful folds much admired by all beholders Hundreds of other flags, equally beautiful, also threw out their gentle waves to the breeze About nine in the evening the steamer Julia, from the Cascades arrived and just as she got in sight she let go a magnificent display of fire works—from a sky rocket down to fire cracker This was followed by a similar display from the crowds of men and boys that thronged the streets A balloon was also let loose, and it went off over to the eastward in a grand style Thus closed the celebration of the Fourth in this city and though the preparations made were not very extensive, yet the day passed off pleasant and agreeable to all and will be long remembered

THE FOURTH AT THE INSANE ASYLUM

Several of the patriotic citizens of West and East Portland among whom was a number of ladies, enjoyed themselves finely by getting up a picnic excursion to the Insane Asylum East Portland, on the Fourth The exercises consisted in reading of the Declaration of Independence singing and social interchange of courteous and agreeable friendly greeting We doubt not this party had a happy and joyous time, devoid of the least symptoms of insanity or other unfortunate afflictions

THE FOURTH AT FOREST GROVE

We have been informed that the citizens of Washington County turned out to the celebration of the Fourth at Forest Grove and that a very pleasant and happy time was experienced by all who participated Rev T H Pearne delivered the oration and we have heard it said that the address was a [illegible] fort powerful and conclusive We doubt not it was all we have heard of it, as Mr Pearne is known to be capable of delivering a [illegible] sound and magnificent Fourth of July speech A regular old fashioned barbacue was served up in splendid style, and everybody partook bountifully of the many good things and in the evening returned to their homes well satisfied with their God, their country and themselves

THE FOURTH AT VANCOUVER

The citizens of Vancouver celebrated the Fourth by a picnic dinner, in the beautiful grove on Gen Harney's farm The dinner, which was excellent, was provided by the ladies of the town and neighborhood, and done credit to their taste, and good cooking Volunteer toasts followed the dinner, which were responded to in short addresses by W F [illegible] Hill, W H Brown, Major Francis, H G Struve, Rev Mr McCarty and others A band of martial music enlivened the occasion and everything passed off pleasantly and satisfactorily to all Salutes were fired by the Garrison and citizens

THE FOURTH AT MOUNT TABOR

Editor Oregonian

The patriotic citizens of Mount Tabor and vicinity determined to prove their love of country and its institutions by celebrating the Fourth in the Grove near the schoolhouse The indications of rain prevented many from attending who would otherwise have swelled the number, as it was, there was quite a gathering

Capt. Wm Powell acted as Marshal of the day The order of exercises was as follows Opening prayer by Mr Cason, singing by a choir led by Miss Frazar, reading of the Declaration of Independence by Hon A J Dufur, followed by Mr Plympton Kelly the orator of the day, who ably discussed his subject, under the heads of what a government should be—what ours had been was, and must be in the future At the close of the oration, the audience adjourned to the tables prepared under the immediate care of the ladies of the neighborhood Too much praise and credit cannot be awarded them for the interest they displayed on the occasion, having had only a day or two to make the necessary preparations Mr Editor, you can well rest assured that the Union cause is safe here while the ladies take such a deep interest, and share in our national celebrations proving the Goddess of Liberty is worshipped at every fireside STRANGER

Before the adjournment of the meeting the following resolution was adopted

Resolved, That we, the citizens of Mount Tabor and vicinity having full confidence that another Fourth will behold us the same great nation that we are to day, do hereby appoint the following gentlemen to act as committee to meet and make arrangements on the first Saturday of June, 1863, for a more extensive celebration of the Fourth coming Edward Long, A J Dufur, A Whitaker, Fletcher Boyd, W S Powell, James Wilson, John Powell, O P Lent, and Plympton Kelly Chairman of said Committee

MILITARY DISTRICT —General Alvord, who as we announced last week, has been assigned to the command of the Military District of Oregon and Washington arrived on the Oregon, Saturday afternoon last, and has gone to Vancouver, his head quarters We however were in error when we stated that a new Military District had been formed comprising Oregon and Washington, and that Gen Alvord would have exclusive command There has been no change made in the boundaries of the Pacific Department, or the redistricting of territory over which military commanders should exercise control, from that heretofore marked out The only change that has been made is the assigning of the command of the District to a General instead of a Colonel of the Army Military commanders are still required to report to Gen Wright at Benicia and orders for all important operations must come from him as heretofore, hence our rejoicings were premature and vain We were led to believe such had been the case from seeing it so stated in the California papers We are really disappointed in this matter as a change of the boundaries of the Department of the Pacific is much needed A new and separate District should be formed of Oregon and Washington Territory at most, and the command assigned to a competent officer who will energetically and efficiently protect our frontier against all foes The boundary of the Department of the Pacific now extends over an area of more than a thousand miles square, while the head quarters of the commands is placed almost at one extremity The facilities for speedy communication are very slight and uncertain and the time required to make a report and get return answer is frequently so long as to render speedy and efficient action when necessary entirely impossible We have not time to present to present the many laudable facts why there should be a division in this Department but shall refer to this more at length hereafter

...ING OREGONIAN has a larger ...RIPTION LIST than any other ...ity published in this City.

...Y OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin ...re, and at Charles Dafrelt's, Front street.

... RACE.—A bold and disgraceful af... off yesterday, about 5 o'clock P. M., ...blic Square of this city, in which ... of "sports" gave a public demon... of their activity and fleetness, for the ... of near one hundred and fifty spec... One of them fellows, the most bold, ...ering into the race, very deliberate... ...d himself to shirt and drawers, the ...which were not in very good plight, ...hat condition let himself out, flying ... Plaza amid the shouts and hurrahs ...erous admirers, coming out in front ... residences of respectable families, ... very deliberately paraded himself ...place of starting. Where were the ...ers—can anybody inform us? When ...f that ilk can deliberately take ...rties upon the public square of the ... Sunday afternoon, we think it is ... decent people to vacate the city entire ...ies.

...RICAL.—The "local" of the Advertiser ... has received a private letter from ...cisco, informing him that a "Star ..." were to leave that city on the steam... 5th inst., direct for this city, to open ...ametto Theatre, for the present and ... season. Among the troupe said to ...en engaged, are the following names: ...hn Wood, Miss Belle Devine, Miss ... Howard, and Mr. Harvey Thompson. ...e of opinion that if a respectable, intel... and original troupe of artistes come to ...ty, they will meet with good success, ...less it is composed of more talent and ...y than many w... ...ve heretofore vis...s, they had better stay where they are. ...omedy and vulgar negro imitations are ...etely "played out" in this place.

...AR DROWNING.—A little boy fell out of ...ern end of a boat into the river, on Sat... last, while playing in the boat near ... The little fellow, luckily caught hold ... boat upon coming up to the top of the ..., and raised a lusty cry of alarm, when ...tleman went to the rescue and safely ...ght him ashore. Parents should keep a ... watch over their children than some of ... have been doing recently. We have ...d many little boys running loose about ...reets, and are only suprised that serious ...ents do not occur more frequently. It ...be too late to commence a reform in this ...cular after life has been lost.

...IL DISCONTINUED.—We learn that the ...er Multnomah has been laid up, and ...ere is now no communication by river ... with Astoria. The mail contract ...d on the 1st inst., and the new con... has failed to come forward to file his ... and enter upon his duties, and the ... of the Multnomah do not find the bus... remunerative enough to continue the ...er in that route.

...TERR.—A small boy was run over by a ... on Knott's wharf, Saturday evening last, ...verely, though fortunately not danger... hurt. The accident originated in two ...ning causes—causeless and unneces... fast driving, and the child being in an ...per place.

...URNED.—Miss Virginia Lawrence, the ...ful and accomplished songstress, re... to this city on the steamer Oregon.— ...welcome her to our city again, and hope ... her stay may be profitably prolonged to ...definite period. She is Portland's fa...

...IVAL OF THE JULIA.—The Julia arrived ...day night last, from Cascades, bringing ... about 200 passengers and a considerable ...ber of horses. Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Ex... brought down about 330 pounds of dust ... there was fully 200 pounds more in the ... of passengers.

...WENT.—One of the most interesting inci... of the celebration on the Fourth was the ... tation of two beautiful wreaths of flow... Columbian No. 3's. One was presented ... Miss Jennetta Marks, and the other by ... J. Konig, of the New York Hotel. The ... exhibited good taste in making them, ... boys feel really proud of their present.

...ED APPOINTMENT.—We are pleased to ...nce that our friend Mr. W. S. Caldwell, ... been appointed by Mr. J. M. Breck, ...ity County Clerk of Multnomah County. ...tter selection could not have been made.

...ANTS TO KNOW.—Somebody wants to ... who furnishes the leaders for "my pu... round the corner. It is understood that ...ible" does the localizing, but who does ... other thing, is involved in mystery.

...AT HEAD.—The itemizer of the Adverti... complains of his "head." He does'nt ..., however, whether it was about to ... or not, but w... ... satisfied that it ... "hooping."

...ILS THIS EVENING.—The Oregon leaves ... evening for San Francisco direct, at 9 ...lock.

...ws.—For full details of telegraphic news ... fourth page of this morning.

ARRIVAL OF THE OREGON.—The steamer Oregon arrived at Knott's Wharf, on Saturday evening at 5 o'clock, from San Francisco via Victoria. The dates are not so late as received overland. We are indebted to Wells, Fargo & Co. for files of papers, and to the Purser for the following passenger list:

Gen. Alvord, Wm Alvord, Capt T. W. Lyle, Capt J T. Wright, Jr, Capt J ... Green, Hunter, S. Mahler, J. Stevens, F Yager, Mr Hayes lady and child, Mrs Whittingham, Mrs Johnson, Mrs Hazard, Mrs Savage, Mrs Dowdy and lady, Cramkauf, Laurel, E Daniel, F Block, Lindon, Buckley, J Farrell, Dudley, Runcket, and 27 in the steerage.

A CONSTITUTION FOR RUSSIA.—On the 25th of August, the nine-hundredth anniversary of the Empire of Russia, the government will be declared changed from autocratic to a constitutional form. The Grand Duke Constantine is the initiator of this movement.—Prince Gortzchakoff is also in favor of the plan.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—We learn from Dr. Deavenport, that a little son Mr. Maguire of this city, on Thursday afternoon last, found a can of gun-powder, and while playing with it, the powder ignited and exploded in his lap, dangerously tearing and burning the child. Hopes are entertained that he will recover, though his condition is very critical.

Prof. Heldrick, who was expelled from North Carolina in the Fremont campaign, and who is at present connected with the Patent Office, has been confirmed as collector for the port of Beaufort, in that State.

Charles McFeren, of Coos County, was drowned in the Willamette river, two miles above Eugene, on the 4th, while engaged in swimming cattle.

McClellan gives the following as the losses at the battle of Fair Oaks killed, 890 wounded, 3,927, missing 1,217

The Richmond Dispatch of the 5th states that the Rebel loss in the late battle [Fair Oaks, at Chickahominy,] was 8 000 including 5 Generals, 23 Colonels 10 Majors, and 57 Captains

From Cairo, June 21st it is reported that an expedition of 4 gunboats and 2 Indiana regiments, under Fitch, started from Memphis some days since, and ascended the White river, Ark, 85 miles above, where a Rebel battery was found An engagement ensued lasting 4½ hours During the firing, a shot entered one boiler of the gunboat Mound City causing a terrible explosion and the loss of life The crew numbered 175 not more than 50 of whom were left for duty In the mean time the troops disembarked a short distance below and charged on a battery, which they carried by storm The Rebel loss is said to be 125 killed and wounded, and 30 prisoners The loss of the Federal land force is small

The Illinois cavalry made a descent on the 20th, on Cold Water Station, on the Mississippi and Tennessee road, and captured 20 prisoners, and burned 20,000 pounds of bacon

In the Senate the Vice President presented a memorial from citizens of Utah asking admission as a State under the name of Deseret

During the gunboat engagement opposite Memphis, the bluffs in front of the city were crowed with spectators. Not less than 5 000 persons witnessed it Many ladies were seen with tears trickling down their cheeks humiliated at the triumph of the Federals

Threats have been made to tear down the Union flags over the citizens' houses The Provost Marshal has issued orders instructing the guard to shoot down on the spot any persons attempting to pull down the flag, or offering an insult to, or molesting the residences of citizens who have thus manifested their devotion. An order was also issued to imprison all citizens carrying firearms and other concealed weapons.

The Treasury Note Bill, providing for a new issue of $150,000,000 of demand notes, passed the House to-day It is believed that it will soon pass the Senate Under the provisions of this Bill there is to be issued $50,000,000 of less denomination than 5 s

The New Orleans Delta of the 5th, openly denounces Secession, and supports General Butler. The Bee has reappeared, having apologized for its article on cotton burning. From the Delta of the 31st, we learn that Fort Morgan, below Mobile, has surrendered to our mortar fleet

The Delta of June 1st speaks in laudatory terms of the judicious course of Gen Butler and says that Abraham Lincoln could walk unharmed, unaccompanied through the streets in perfect security Business was reviving

The Charleston Mercury of May 23d, in a long editorial says, that President Davis is an incubus to our cause. It does not doubt that although carefully covered over with secrecy by Congress, enough has been disclosed by stern realities to show his total incompetency to govern the affairs of the Confederacy

The Senate has rejected the nomination of Gen. Shields as Major General

The greater part of the force at Harper's Ferry is engaged in throwing up earthworks on Bolivar Heights.

Letters from McClellan's army state that our first parallel, 3 miles long is completed It is also believed that the rebels cannot muster 60,000 men on whom they can rely to make a charge on us, or stand one from us

New Orleans advices state that four men were hung on the 7th by General Butler for robbing citizens.

Com. Porter's mortar fleet had gone to Vicksburg. Farragut was before Vicksburg A portion of his fleet had routed the enemy at Grand Bluff

WASHINGTON, June 24 —A number of prominent citizens were arrested yesterday and today at the rear of McClellan's army, and were sent to Fortress Monroe

Several Congressmen returned from White House to day, having been refused permission by McClellan to go to the front

The tax bill which passed yesterday provides as follows.

1st A tax on persons and corporations, engaged in certain pursuits, for licenses

2d. A tax on manufactured articles and products—to be made by the manufacturer or producer when he sells such articles and products.

3d. A duty on incomes of individuals, rail road and steamboat companies, public officers, and others.

4th. Duties to be paid for stamps, which the bill requires to be affixed to certain papers, medicines, documents, &c

The bill goes into effect on the 1st of August

The income tax is not to become due until the 1st of May, 1863. It is to be levied on the income of the year preceding A limit is placed to the time in which the tax shall be in operation—the date fixed for it to cease being 1866

WASHINGTON, June 26 —Special dispatches to the New York papers say that Gen Pope believes that the rebel forces at Richmond are overrated, as were Beauregard s at Corinth It was the concurrent testimony of spies and deserters that not less than 152 000 soldiers were behind Beauregard's entrenchments, but upon the occupation of Corinth it was proved beyond a question that he never had more than 75,000 He [Gen Pope] laughs at the report of Beauregard having reinforced the Richmond army to the extent of even a soldier He considers the war at the West virtually ended, the only duty yet to be done being to possess and hold the immense breadth of country already and really conquered

In answer to the question concerning the prisoners taken by him, Gen Pope says that he took 30,000 men—they could hardly be called soldiers as 22 000 stand of arms [were] found, which had been thrown away [Having] no means to feed the captives and believing that there was little temptation for them to join the rebel route, he released them on parole Many of them were from Kentucky and Tennessee

Beauregard publishes a letter in the Mobile News of the 19th, denying that Gen Pope took any such number of prisoners as was telegraphed by Halleck He says that 100 or 200 will cover the number He also says that the Confederate loss at Corinth and during the retreat will not amount to one day s expenses of the Federal army at Jackson Miss

Orders have been issued that in all cases of prisoners in arms against the United States who may be tried and sentenced to death a record of the tribunal shall be sent to the President for his approval, without whose order no such sentence shall be executed

CAN WE LIVE WITH THEM AGAIN?—The Key West correspondent of the New York Times writes

"I have often heard the declaration that when the rebellion shall have been crushed there can be no re union of the States The statement is very common, especially among Southern men But if the state of affairs here is of any significance, it points to the fallacy of the idea There are men living here who have signed the ordinance of the secession of Florida who have opened books for subscriptions to the bogus Confederate loan, some who have refused to sell coal to the United States vessels, and some who have threatened national officers or those who should presume to accept national office and those generally speaking whom I have been assured were the most determined rebels—Yet they have all now taken the oath of allegiance, and are quietly conducting their business amid a very numerous representation of Northern men and all is order and quiet Some of these persons are anxious to conceal and forget that they have rebelled and may be found competing for the trade of the army and navy, and mixing in the gayer scenes which even times of war present"

ANOTHER LESSON FOR JOHN BULL —Before Great Britain has recovered from the excitement produced by the Monitor lesson Brother Jonathan has furnished him with another, which will create scarcely less sensation, in the naval operations at New Orleans The St John (N B) Freeman concludes an article upon the civil war in America, with the subjoined paragraph

"The battle of the Monitor and the Merrimac was a startling lesson to Europe The capture of New Orleans is a lesson not less important and alarming If on the Mississippi a few vessels bound in iron chains and enveloped in trusses of wet hay run past strong batteries in safety, and then reduce a large city to submission with threats of a bombardment, what is the safety of St Petersburg, or of London—what is the value of Cronstadt, Chatham, Woolwich Cherbourg Toulon, or of the batteries on the Dardenelles? This American war is indeed in many senses a revolutionary war

RIVAL OF BLONDIN —Blondin has a female rival in the West M'lle Carolista is performing wonders on the tight rope in Chicago She walks with ease and rapidity along a rope stretched from the roof of a five story building on Dearborn street, to the roof of a four story block opposite, performing on her passage all the feats for which Blondin is famous, even to standing on her head midway across the rope It is needless to say that the fair Carolista is clad in male attire
